"At Tyddyn Môn we were grateful to receive the support from Mantell Gwynedd to start us on our social value journey. The programme has helped us understand where our impact is greatest and how we can improve what we do. The social return on investment data will inform our strategic development moving forward and help us to deliver maximum social impact and ultimately benefit the people using our services."

Eleri, Adam and the team were very helpful and supportive. We couldn't have achieved this without them. The training and expert advice has been invaluable and we have also made some great contacts throughout the programme in the workshop events. I am so thankful that we were part of the programme."
